The Journal of the John Dewey Society for the Study of Education and Culture

Education and Culture, published twice yearly by Purdue University Press, takes an integrated view of philosophical, historical, and sociological issues in education. Submissions of Dewey scholarship, as well as work inspired by Dewey's many interests, are welcome. JDS members receive the journal as part of their membership in the society.

Education and Culture is supported by the Daniel Tanner Endowment Fund.

Editor: A. G. Rud, Purdue University

Submission guidelines

E&C publishes critical essays, research studies, essay and book reviews, and “rejoinder” essays. Recommended lengths vary for critical essays, research studies, or essay reviews (7500 words); book reviews (1000–2000 words); and commentaries or rejoinders to published pieces (800 words). Alternative or imaginative submissions, such as poetry, creative nonfiction, and narrative, will be considered; please consult the editor prior to submission.

Submit manuscripts to the journal’s website:

<http://docs.lib.purdue.edu/eandc/>

Manuscripts should conform to the Chicago Manual of Style or the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. There should be no author identifiers in the manuscript file, as the review process is anonymous. Most editorial decisions will be rendered within four months. Prospective authors are encouraged to contact the editor (rud@purdue.edu) with any questions.
